

Weekly Webinar Series

Our weekly webinars are designed to give you clear, straightforward advice on important topics around UK university fee status. We'll explain the rules in plain language, cut through the jargon, and dispel common myths, so you understand exactly what applies to your situation.

Upcoming Weekly Webinars

The UK Study Options team has over 40 years' combined experience of university admissions and career guidance. We are experts in UK university fee status for expat students, advising schools and families globally.

Understanding UK University Fee Status for Expat Parents

Date: Thursday 4th September 2025 - 2pm

Join the UK Study Options team as they cut through the jargon and explain the rules around fee status. With years of university experience, they'll share tips to help British and Irish expatriate families protect Home fee status eligibility.

Understanding UK University Fee Status for those in Europe

Date: Thursday 11th September 2025 - 2pm

This session explains what the post-Brexit fee status rules mean for British families in Europe, highlighting the differences across the UK nations.

Understanding UK University Fee Status for those in Boarding School

Date: Thursday 9th October 2025 - 2pm

This session explains how the 'main purpose test' affects families with children at boarding school and why boarding school alone does not guarantee Home fee status.

Alternatively scan the QR code to register:

